together under
the same roof for
many years, yet
never really meet;
and two others at
first speech

Lord, we realise we have many faults, but we also have the joy of knowing with certainty that by being your living Word all our imperfections are peeled away, and we are constantly made new, like a butterfly emerging from its cocoon.

Who helped you to distinguish between right and wrong?
Whose example influenced you most as a child?
